

Darling I feel some better than I did when I wrote this

E

My Darling:-

If I can hold up my head long enough I'll write my Sweetheart just a note - trying to express to him just how much I enjoyed the long sweet letter sent me this <sup>9th</sup> m.

Darling I have not been out of the house today <sup>m.</sup> till late this evening, then I acted quite foolish and went regardless of my feelings and came back not much improved. Wish I could see you, dearest, tonight even if I could not talk much - you could, oh well lots of things, that cheer me and make me <sup>almost</sup> well again. Don't think I've been as sick in years. have had <sup>sick</sup> a, headache three days, worse today But still I can think of my son, and love him and wish to see and <sup>talk</sup> or write to him.

114-010-411
I made Horace a little mad before he left - I just held it as long as I could and that was not long, since I was half sick. and just give him a piece of my mind - You know what that is.
With a heart full of true love <sup>Yours.</sup> Darling excuse this short letter, I'll do better tomorrow.

Mr. G. W. West,

Panama City
Fla